

Purkal Bulletin - February 2018

A new computer lab has been set up in one of the classrooms of the Eastern Block. Mr. Sharad Mehra ,CEO Laureate, inaugurated this new laboratory on the 3rd February 2018.

Adarsh Kumar and Somiya Thapa won the bronze medals in the “Khula Aasman” art competition (under 15 age group) organized by India Art Gallery. The organizers also shortlisted the painting of Ifra Naaz (under 14) for honorable mention.

The third floor of the Western Block was also completed and brought into use on the 17th of January. Ms. Clarita Martinet Fay, Director, ASED, Geneva formally inaugurated the Yoga Hall on the 20th February. This block accommodates this Hall in addition to two completely furnished classrooms.

Five of our teachers attended a 3 days’ workshop at Delhi, organized by ‘Jodo Gyan’. This is an organization working to find solutions to problems in classroom practices. They work closely with students, teachers, teacher-educators and parents, particularly in mathematics and sciences.

Akash Pal’s painting was again selected for The Indo-Pak Peace calendar ‘Aaghaz - e – Dosti’. This is the second year in which his painting appears and it contains paintings from students of both the countries. It is a collection of shared dreams of peace and friendship.

The painting of one of our students, Gaurav (Class 6) was among the top 50, chosen from among the 15300 entries from all over Uttrakhand. The theme of the competition was ‘Water Conservation’, organized by ‘Central Soil and Water Conservation Department’.
