

PURKAL BULLETIN - APRIL 2018

We are delighted that our new land at Rikholi was successfully registered in the Society's name on the 18th of April. To mark this momentous occasion, we had a 'Bhoomi Poojan.

Our School participated in the Junior English Inter-school debate (JEDI 2018) at the Doon School. We reached up to the final round after successfully going through 3 levels. Ishika Mangain and Shubham Maurya of class 10 were selected as the best speakers in rounds 3 and 4 respectively.

Indian Oil Corporation donated us a 52-seater school bus.

It was our pleasure to have the renowned Bharatanatyam dancer Deepa Raghavan perform at our school, Deepa continues to perform and teach and runs her own school 'Nritya Kaveri'. It was organized by Spic Macay.

Children of Class 6, 7, and 8 attended a literary fest organized at WIC Dehradun. Naina Singh of class 8th won the First prize in a poem writing competition organized at the Literature fest.

Mr. Ankur Bahl, a mountaineer who successfully conquered Mount Everest at the age of 55, inspired our children by his motivational talk.
