

Purkal Bulletin - January 2016

Christmas was celebrated with a great joy and enthusiasm at our school. An attractive Christmas tree was decorated by our students and cake was distributed to all students and staff by our Bakery Club. Students sacrificed their Christmas gifts to purchase 100 blankets for street people. Aasraa Trust helped us with distribution and identification of the needy.

'Pushkin Chandra Memorial Poem Recitation and Story Narration Competitions' were organized for the Primary Section of our School. The students performed marvelously using various props.

The winners were awarded by the Principal of our school. The winners of the competition were:
